

CORPORATE INTELLIGENCE

PARTICIPATION EVENTS

Sydney Harbour, Australia

Disaster strikes your marketing event when your company's new project plans are seized by armed terrorists and placed in a Time Bomb. Your mission: defuse the Bomb. Designed as the ultimate corporate hospitality event, where you and your clients will experience an exciting and adrenalin packed day on Sydney's magnificent Harbour.

Led by former SPECIAL AIR SERVICE commandos, your clients will take to the Harbour in water taxi Rigid Inflatable Powerboats, capable of producing 30 knots. Your task: to find clues to defuse the bomb in this race against time 'Bond' style adventure. But which wires do the team cut to avoid detonation?

With a choice of superb foreshore venues and run as a full or half day programme with the best in hospitality, your clients will celebrate their achievement with vodka martinis...shaken, not stirred.

"It was an awesome day with great learnings for our team. The professional manner and honest down to earth approach of your team has provided us something to aspire to. The event certainly exceeded my expectations."

Alliance Contracting

"Outstanding feedback. The team loved the day and the lessons to be carried back to work are strong and positive. It was a real winner."

AHG

"Thank you once again for looking after us, we felt so 'alive' by the end of it, the adrenalin and the excitement of the day was just the tonic we needed to invigorate our energy levels and the appetite for our jobs. I will be glad to recommend your services."
