Disaster strikes your marketing event when your company's new project plans are seized by armed terrorists and placed in a Time Bomb. Your mission: defuse the Bomb. Designed as the ultimate client entertainment or team building event, where you and your clients experience an exciting and adrenalin packed program on Perth's magnificent Swan River.

Led by former SPECIAL AIR SERVICE operatives, your clients will take to the Swan in SAS style Rigid Inflatable Powerboats, capable of producing 40 knots. Your task: to find clues to defuse the bomb in this race against time 'James Bond' style corporate adventure. But which wires do the team cut to avoid detonation?

With a choice of superb foreshore venues and run as a half day event in the safest possible environment, your clients will celebrate their achievement with vodka martinis...shaken, not stirred.
