

The Bledisloe Cup

Wallabies vs All Blacks

ANZ Stadium, Sydney - The SuperSuite

Saturday 20 August 2016

After their three match series against England earlier in the season, the Qantas Wallabies will now be ready for the main course. With relief that a number of World Cup winning All Black legends have now retired, will this finally be the year when the Wallabies break their Bledisloe Cup drought? Whatever the result this World Cup final replay will be an enthralling encounter.

Located in the glass fronted SuperSuite on Level 3 of ANZ Stadium, with magnificent views overlooking the ground, your guests will experience corporate hospitality at its finest. The air conditioned suite has its own dining area with table and chairs and equipped with TV screens for match replays. Premium beverages are served throughout with a delicious buffet meal before the game and supper a little later. When the on-field action begins you simply stroll onto your private balcony and sit in your exclusive seats to watch the sporting spectacle about to unfold.
